

Jean C. Brangs

1920-2011

Jean Oliver Brangs (Nee Collins), a longtime resident of Hatboro, died on October 22, 2011. She was 91. Jean was the wife of Paul H. Brangs who died in 1984.

Born October 6, 1920 in East Orange, NJ, Jean was the daughter of the late Robert and Adelaide Oliver Collins. She is predeceased by her brother, Robert and 3 sisters, Helen Collins, Betty Collins, and Ruth C. Turner.

Following graduation from East Orange High School in East Orange, NJ and the Katherine Gibbs School in New York City, Jean was a corporate secretary and stenographer.

Jean was never idle, having many interests and hobbies. She was den mother for multiple scout groups, an avid reader and a bridge player, participated in many clubs and created probably hundreds of items by her crochet, needlepoint and knitting skills. These items, created with such love will be cherished by all those lucky enough to possess them.

Jean was a member of the Church of the Advent in Hatboro and was a proud member of the vestry. She will be remembered for her successful effort to save the stage in the parish hall, which was scheduled for renovation. Jean will be greatly missed by her many friends, neighbors and the parishioners at the church.

Most recently, Jean resided at Luther Woods Convalescent Center. Her family is grateful to Luther Woods for their caring attention.

Jean is survived by her three sons: Paul and his wife Patricia of Randolph, NJ, Douglas of Bedminster, Pa and Steve and his wife Kathleen of Newark, De. She is also survived by six grandchildren: Peter, Adam, Jillian, Amy, Halley and Tom and many nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend her funeral service, Thursday, October 27 at 12 noon in The Episcopal Church of the Advent, 12 Byberry Road, Hatboro, Pa 19040. Visitation will begin at 11 AM. Interment will follow at Whitemarsh Memorial Park in Horsham. Memorial donations may be made in Jean's name to the Rector's Fund at The Church of the Advent at the above address.
