

Obituary

John H. Rubisch

1924-2011

John H. Rubisch, a resident of the Pine Run Community, Doylestown, died peacefully on Sunday, January 23 at his home, at the age of 86.

He was the loving husband of Helen (McGowan) Rubisch with whom he had shared 65 years of marriage.

He was born in Colver, Cambria County, PA on July 4, 1924. He grew up on the family farm in Cambria Township. As a teen-ager he studied Vocational Agriculture and was active in the "Future Farmers of America" holding a state office.

He was graduated from Ebensburg-Cambria High School in the class of 1942 and chose the United States Marine Corps as his military service for WWII. He served for 20 years as an Aviation Electronics expert in the air wing of the Corps both stateside and in China, Korea, and Japan.

John retired in 1962 from the military at age 38, and started Electrical Engineering studies at The Pennsylvania State University. Upon graduation in 1965, he began employment with the Johnsville Naval Air Development Center in Warminster, where he became an expert in Environmental Acoustics with ocean bottom interaction.

John became known in Warrington as an expert gardener where he shared his garden produce with neighbors and church friends.

He was a 46-year member of the Hatboro Baptist Church where he served many years as church moderator, stewardship and missions chair and teacher of adult classes.

He was a member of the Penn State Alumni Association, the Nittany Lion Club and Bucks County Penn State Club. He was a loyal supporter of Penn State Football and coach Paterno.

John was pre-deceased by his infant daughter, Barbara; his parents, Charles and Mary (Szado) Rubisch; two brothers, Charles and James; and two sisters Helen Rubisch and Mary Balko.

He is survived, in addition to his wife, by his son, Dr. John C. Rubisch, his daughter Lynn Penniman-Rubisch (Eric) and son David Rubisch (Mary Anne); four grandchildren, Nicole Bohne (Michael), Ashley Ortelli (Damian), Kristin Rubisch and Christopher Rubisch; a sister Margaret Balko (Michael) and two brothers George and Joseph Rubisch.

Friends and relatives and friends are invited to attend his memorial service at 11 am on Saturday Jan 29, in Hatboro Baptist Church, 32 N. York Rd, Hatboro, PA 19040. Visitation will be held at 10 am until the time of the service. Interment will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, if desired, memorial gifts may be made to the above named church or the Parvee Foundation, Pine Run Community, Doylestown, PA 18901
