

Larry Drinkwater

Larry Drinkwater of Albuquerque, N.M., formerly of Hatboro, died Thursday, Jan. 3, 2008. He was 82.

He was the husband of Ada for 64 years.

He was born in Knutfords, England, on Sept. 30, 1925 and migrated, with his family to the United States in 1968.

Mr. Drinkwater served in the British 6th Airbourne during World War II, and the Kings Own Guard.

During his service years, and after, he was a gifted musician playing many instruments and playing in several brass bands.

He was employed by the Pennwalt Corp., formerly of Warminster. Later, he was employed by the Rosewood Court Apartments in Hatboro for ten years.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his daughter, Eunice Bromberg and her husband, Jonathan, of Flagstaff, Ariz.; his son, John Drinkwater and his wife, Jackie, of Horsham; four grandchildren, Jacqueline, Janette, Geoffrey, and Roger; six great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law, Joyce Baillie, of Altrincham, Cheshire, England; and many other family and friends.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his memorial service at 7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 25, at Baskwill Funeral Home, 20 W. Montgomery Ave. (a half block west of York Road), Hatboro, where family will receive friends from 6 p.m. until the time of the service. The Rev. Robin Martin will officiate.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Parkinson's Disease Foundation, 1359 Broadway, Suite 1509, New York, NY 10018.
